

State law should not be superceded by this proposal. It seems that the executive branch is continuing its efforts to violate my rights to privacy. It would not surprise me that the next rule will be that I cannot verbally berate people who make harassing phone calls, Day & Night. I have a constitutional right to privacy. Respect it! So much for Republican conservatism.